

Chapter 20 – General Provisions

20.01 RULES OF CONSTRUCTION. In the construction of this code of general ordinances, the following rules shall be observed, unless such construction would be inconsistent with the manifest intent of the ordinance:

Wisconsin Statutes. The terms "Wisconsin Statutes" or "Wis. Stat." whenever used in this code shall mean the Wisconsin Statutes for the year 1993-94 and all later amendments and modifications thereof.

Gender: Singular and Plural. Every word in this code and in any ordinance using the masculine or feminine gender may extend and be applied to other or neuter gender as well, and every word importing the singular number only may extend and be applied to several persons or things as well as to one person or thing and every word importing a plural number may extend and be applied to one person or thing; provided that these rules of construction shall not be applied to any provision which shall contain any express language excluding such construction or when the subject matter or context of such provisions may be repugnant thereto.

Person. The word "person" extends and applies to natural persons firms, corporations, limited liability companies, associations, partnerships or bodies corporate or politic and all entities of any kind capable of being sued unless plainly inapplicable.

Acts by Agents. When a provision requires an act to be done which may be law as well be done by any agent as by the principal, such provision shall be construed to include all such acts when done by an authorized agent.

Tense. Words used in the present tense include the future.

Mandatory Use of Word "Shall". The word "shall" is mandatory and not directive.

Classes of Notices. Classes 1, 2 and 3 Notices require 1, 2 or 3 weekly insertions as defined in Wis. Stat. ss 985.01(1).

20.02 CONFLICT AND SEPARABILITY.

Conflict of Provisions. If the provisions of the different chapters of this Code conflict with or contravene each other the provisions of each chapter shall prevail as to all matters and questions arising out of the subject matter of such chapter.

Separability of Code Provisions. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this code is for any reason held to be invalid, or unconstitutional by reason of any decision of any court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the validity of any other section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase or portion thereof. The Town Board hereby declares that it would have passed this Code and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or portion thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, sentences, subsections, clauses, phrases or portions thereof may be declared invalid or unconstitutional.

20.03 CLERK TO FILE DOCUMENTS INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE. Whenever in this code any standard, code, rule, regulation or other written or printed matter, other than the Wisconsin statutes or other sections of this Code, are adopted by reference they shall be deemed incorporated in this code as if fully set forth herein and the Town Clerk is hereby directed and required to file, deposit and keep in his or her office a copy of the Code, standard, rule, regulation or other written or printed matter as adopted. Materials so filed, deposited and kept shall be public records open for examination with proper care at all reasonable times, subject to such order or regulations which the Clerk may prescribe for their provisions.
